

I am opposed to the weaking of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Laws which the Consumer Bankers Association has chosen to challenge.

I value my privacy and feel that any further erosion of my privacy is against my constitutional rights. Please stop big business from intruding into my personal life by way of unsolicited and unwanted phone calls.

Thank you,
George Sladic